3. About Your Disc Jockey:

What should be the attire of Your DJ? (Select Only One)

- Tuxedo
- Suit/Shirt & Tie
- Casual

What level of interaction/type of personality should be displayed by Your Disc Jockey?
(Select Only One)

- Low Key
- Moderate / MC
- High Profile

Low Key DJ is to remain in the background and let the music play the major role of the event. No Talking should be necessary.

Moderate / Master Of Ceremonies DJ should handle announcements as needed and display verbal interaction with the audience only if needed. This type of personality will simply let everybody know what is going on at any given time.

High Profile DJ must handle all announcements, stay in the spotlight and display extensive verbal interaction with the audience. This would include, but not limit your DJ to leading group dances, games, motivate dancing however necessary, etc. This personality works the best when DJ has TOTAL control over music selections and activities with very little guidance from the customer.
